The Hawaii High School Athletic Association marks the “diamond” anniversary of its OC16 Boys Basketball State Championships when it tips off this Wednesday, Feb. 17 at McKinley and Moanalua High Schools. Many records have stood the test of time, including Moanalua’s Sam Johnson’s most points in a game (43, 1981) and Punahou’s la Saipaia’s most points in a championship game (38, 1975). But a flurry of competitive teams in this year’s field could top some of the seemingly untouchable marks of year’s past.

Top seed 'Iolani (9-5) is making their 24th team appearance, 12th as the #1 seed in the tournament. The Raiders are led by senior guard Robby Mann and junior forward Hugh Hogland, who both average in the double digits for points per game.

Defending state champion Kalaheo (12-2) is making their 32nd Division I appearance, its eighth ranked as the #2 seed in the tournament, and are the only team to hold the distinction of winning back-to-back D2 and D1 titles (2012/2013). OIA runner-up Kaiser (12-2) has the opportunity to do the same if they can make a title run, but it would be a formidable task for the Cougars as they must win four in a row to do so.

In the Division II bracket, top seeded St. Francis (11-1) is making its fourth tournament appearance, and has won the state title in 2013. OIA champion and #2 seed Roosevelt is making its third D2 appearance.
