St. Francis drubs Damien for second straight D-II title

By Paul Honda
phonda@stanfordbsr.com

The second time around certainly wasn't easier for the St. Francis Saints. They were simply prepared for any adversity. Kameron Ng made sure of it, pouring in 11 of his 29 points in a pivotal second quarter as St. Francis overwhelmed Damien 76-52 to repeat as Division II boys basketball state champion on Friday night at the Stan Sheriff Center. IH champion St. Francis finished the season 29-3 overall (including non-conference games), and won five of its eight games against Top 10 teams, all D-I level. Ng also was named the best defensive effort we put in all season." For the second year in a row, the Saints started slowly in the title game. Damien was in a groove, getting quick passes and drives to open a 9-2 lead. After a TV timeout, St. Francis began its comeback. Nishida hit a 3 from the left corner and Kordel Ng got active offensively going to the rim. After Titus Liu came off the bench to swish a corner 3, the Saints led 16-13 late in the first quarter. Damien battled back with a corner 3 by Galdiano and back-to-back baskets by Sevilleja, getting to within 21-20. From there, St. Francis went on a 15-2 run as the Ng brothers combined for 13 of the 15 points. Bubba Akana

University defeats Seabury Hall for first D-II title

By Paul Hoala
 paulhoala@hawaii.edu

Thirty-eight years more than a lifetime after their first win.

That's how long their win with a trophy in hand, and it ended on Sunday night. Anson Canencia scored 11 points and Micah Agcaoili added nine as seeded University High overcame the No. 1-ranked Seabury Hall Spartans to capture the Division II title at the best impression of his dad, former all-time guard Randy Canencia, along and during through the tournament's toughest pressure.

And just like that, University won its first state title since 1979 when Charlie Hatanaka was head coach.

"It's very special. We played a lot of good games, even beating 10 teams," Anson Canencia said.

The team had come bumps along the way, including a second loss to Seabury during the regular season.

"We knew it would be a great after losing that second game," said Hobus, who also had a block. "We put in the work and every game after that we do on the State. I have experience and we're a little older now. We share the ball and it affects the whole team. It's been a long time. More than 30 years!"

KAISER TAKES THE PRIZE

Keoua Mahiko from Kaiser High is seen in action during the game. He scored 24 points, propelling the Cougars to victory in their final D-2 game.

By Paul Hood

The season was done with force. Kaiser, which will depart for Hawaii next week, got 24 points from Keoua Mahiko for a 66-45 win over Kalani to capture the Division 2 state championship on Saturday night at Stan Sheriff Center. In the first state championship game, Kaiser defeated Kalani 49-45. Kaiser's Kalaugher preceded the press on Kalani, grabbing 18 boards. The key 6-foot-6 guard drew constant double teams from Kalani's guard when the shots were high-percentage. After Mahiko hit a crucial 3 and Thumarts hit two foul shots, the Cougars were within 23-21 with 1:00 left in the game.

With Kalaugher on the bench — he commented to be back on the bench and left with 2:15 to go in the half — Bohannon hit two foul shots to end the half putting Kalani within 34-33. Kaiser shot 44-77 from the first three quarters to stay close.

HPA nets Division II title

By Paul Hooda

For a year, Duane Vegeras dominated in a basketball around the Hawaii Preparatory Academy campus. It was the best that the 6-foot-7 forward could do after suffering an ACL tear to his right knee as a senior. The extra work didn't hurt a year later. The freshman selected for team on the island as Hawaii Prep fought off Kalani 42-33 Tuesday in the Division II final of the Hawaii and American OHSAA Boys Basketball State Championships. "Last season, I got injured. I worked hard to come back and see what I could do," Vegeras said. "It was really hard to come back and find my legs."

Hawaiian Airlines 56th Annual Boys Basketball State Championships

Kalaheo shows pep in winning D-II title

By Paul Honda
phonda@standardtse.com

So much for fatigue.
 Fortysix games into possibly the busiest season known to a Hawaii high school basketball team, Alka Smith and his Kalaheo Mustangs were amazingly fresh Saturday night in a 57-42 win over McKinley for the Division II crown of the Hawaiian Airlines/HHSAA Boys Basketball State Championships.
 Junior guard Josh Ko led Kalaheo with 16 points and the Mustangs got superlative defense from Derick Morgan and Shem Sukumaran. Morgan and Sukumaran limited McKinley's super scorer Farrington's J.P. Saycon jumped over Khalil Luis of Pahoia in the Division II state basketball final.

Farrington adds another state title

BYRONIAH HOOHUA
 byroniah@hawaii.com

Forget the state title. One game at the starting line and it all.

Top-seeded Farrington looked huge in capturing the Division II State Championship in a game for the second time in four years. The Governors used a blowout to seal the job against Pahoia, 58-45.

Pāhoa captures first state championship

by Stanley Lee
Advertiser Staff Writer

Before the season even started, Pāhoa created a list of goals, one of which was to win the state title.

The Dagers almost didn't clinch a state berth, then almost didn't have enough money to pay for the state trip.

Pāhoa was never fazed through it all. When a seven-point fourth-quarter lead disappeared in last night's title game against Kailua

Pāhoa went from barely making the Even as their lead stretched to double digits, Kailua wanted to remain uncomfortable.

It was only one night earlier that the Surfriders blew a 13-point lead in the semifinals and had to win in overtime. Only toward the end of last night's state championship game did the Surfriders feel a sense of comfort, especially with a state championship trophy in hand

Govs pull out a miracle

By Paul Honda
 phonda@starbulletin.com

They could almost walk on water, these miracle Govs.

A desperation 3-pointer by Christian Hernandez forced overtime, and a clutch layup by Jordan Ibana with 10 seconds left gave Farrington a stunning 70-68 win over top-seeded Aiea in the final of the Hawaiian Airlines/HHSAA Boys Basketball Division II State Championships at Blaisdell Arena.

It was a miraculous finish for the Governors (23-6 overall), who had a struggling program when Allan Silva took the helm four years ago.

"I'm walking on air right now. I'm really happy for my guys," said Silva, who remembered a promise he made to himself. "I said in three years, we'll be competitive, and by the fourth or fifth year, we'll win a state championship."

McKinley defense smothers Kohala

It's one of the most-used clichés in sports: Defense wins championships.

But it is definitely the appropriate phrase to use in describing McKinley's total domination of Kohala in a 55-28 victory last night in the championship game of the inaugural Hawaiian Airlines/HHSAA Division II Boys Basketball State Championships at the Stan Sheriff Center.
