DIVISION II BOYS BASKETBALL

Damien closes out first state championship

By Paul Honda
phonda@staradvertiser.com

The battle of Houghtaling Street turned out to be a mere skirmish.

Jake Holtz scored seven of his 13 points in the first quarter and Jydon Hall poured in 19 as top-seeded Damien routed second-seeded Farrington 73-50 to capture the Snapple/HHSAA Boys Basketball Division II State Championship Saturday night at the Stan Sheriff Center.

This is the first state basketball title in Damien's history.

Balance was essential for the Monarchs, who got 13 points each from Jake Holtz, Bryce Forbes and Hayden Bayudan. Seventeen steals, including four by Holtz and three by Bayudan, stifled the running Governors.

"This was our goal since last year, we lost in the state final (to St. Francis). We sat in the locker room for 20 minutes after that game," Monarchs coach Alvin

JAMM AGUIÑO / JAGUINO@STARADVERTISER.COM

"It took a little bit of heart. We had the talent, but we worked hard and have the Damien grit. To play hard and be scrappy. The young boys weren't used to that, so our seniors, me Lindon and Tanner (Souza) showed them," Penebacker said.

The first two minutes were full-tilt action up and down the floor, but Damien's 2-2-1 press slowed down the pace. Forbes' corner 3 on a lead from Lindon Sevilleja Jr. opened the Monarchs' lead to 13-8 before the midway point of the first quarter.

Then came the torrent from the team in white and purple. Damien's press created a string of Farrington turnovers with a drive by Hall for a layup, a steal by Holtz and a lob from Hall to Forbes for his first dunk, two foul shots by Hall, a follow shot by Holtz, a steal and layup by Sevilleja, and suddenly it was 23-8 late in the opening quarter.

Damien entered the second quarter with a 26-13

St. Francis drubs Damien for second straight D-II title

By Paul Honda
phonda@staradvertiser.com

The second time around certainly wasn't easier for the St. Francis Saints.

They were simply prepared for any adversity. Kameron Ng made sure of it, pouring in 11 of his 29 points in a pivotal second quarter as St. Francis overwhelmed Damien 76-52 to repeat as Division II boys basketball state champion on Friday night at the Stan Sheriff Center.

ILH champion St. Francis finished the season 29-3 overall (including nonconference games), and won five of its eight games against Top 10 teams, all D-I level.

Ng also was named the

the best defensive effort we put in all season."

For the second year in a row, the Saints started slowly in the title game. Damien was in a groove, getting quick passes and drives to open a 9-2 lead.

After a TV timeout, St. Francis began its comeback. Nishida hit a 3 from the left corner and Kordel Ng got active offensively going to the rim. After Titus Liu came off the bench to swish a corner 3, the Saints led 16-13 late in the first quarter.

Damien battled back with a corner 3 by Galdiano and back-to-back baskets by Sevilleja, getting to within 21-20. From there, St. Francis went on a 15-2 run as the Ng brothers combined for 13 of the 15 points. Bubba Aka-moments of the fourth quarter.

Again, like clockwork, the Saints responded. Vukovic scored the next five points to launch a 12-5 run. Kordel Ng drove for a euro-step bucket, Nishida rained in a corner 3 and Kameron Ng drove, pump-faked three defenders into the air, and scored easily for a 61-46 lead

John Francis of White Knight jumped for shot after the Saints beat Kalani to win the Division II state title on Friday.

ST. FRANCIS IS D-II KING

By Henry Dunsen
ST. FRANCIS, N.M.

For nearly 12 months, Kameron Ng kept the press of a season's worth of basketball news. The Saint Francis guard and forward has been a key player in the team's success, leading the Saints to a 12-4 record in the Division II state tournament. Ng, a senior, was named the Most Outstanding Player of the tournament, a testament to his leadership and skill on the court.

Saint Francis' 12-4 record is the best in the Division II state tournament. The team's success was built on a combination of strong defense and efficient offense. Ng, who averaged 15.5 points and 5.5 rebounds per game, was instrumental in the team's victory. The Saints defeated the defending champion, the University of Utah, in the final game of the tournament.

University defeats Seabury Hall for first D-II title

By Paul Hovels
phovels@hawaii.com

Thirty-eight years more than a lifetime ago, in 1978, "Woody" Thibault became the first coach to lead a team to the state title, and he ended on Sunday night. Junior Cameron scored 33 points and Micah Agcaoili added more as Seabury Hall Spartans defeated University High 46-31 to capture the Division II title at has been impressed of his dad, former all-time guard Randy Cameron, who was and during through the Spartans' halcyon years.

And just like that, University was its first state title since 1978, when Charlie Holscher was head coach.

"It's very special. We played a lot of good games, even beating Oahu," Junior Cameron said.

The team had come bumped along the way, making my second tour in Seabury during the regular season.

"We knew it would be a great idea to have a second team," said Hobus, who also had a block. "We put in the work and every game after that was like on the State. We have experience and we're a little bit more. We share the ball and it affects the whole team. It's been a long time. More than 30 years."

KAISER TAKES THE PRIZE

Keoua Mahiko fires in 24 points, propelling the Cougars to victory in their final D-2 game.

By Paul Hinds
hinds@staradvertiser.com

The season was done with force.
Kaiser, which will depart for Hawaii next week, got 18 points from Keoua Mahiko for a 66-45 win over Kalani to capture the Division 2 state championship on Saturday night at Stan Sheriff Center.
In the first state championship game, Kaiser (16-0) defeated Kalani (11-1) 49-45. Kaiser's victory was the first time the Cougars have won a state championship since 1994. The Cougars' season drew to a close with a double win over Kalani.

needed when the shots were high-percentage. After Mahiko's for a career 2 and 10 points, he had two foul shots. The Cougars were within 22-21 with 1:00 left in the first half.

With Kalaugher on the bench — he committed two fouls — Kaiser took the lead. Mahiko had two foul shots to end the half, putting Kaiser within 16-13. Kaiser shot 6-for-11 from the free throw line in the second quarter to stay close.

Saint Francis makes its mark

By David Chambers
dchambers@hawaiiianews.com

The fighting spirit of Saint Francis' basketball team was on full display as the school's boys' basketball team defeated Kailua 39-34 in the first round of the HHSAA Boys' Basketball State Championships on Tuesday night.

Saint Francis' victory was a significant milestone for the school, as it marked the first time the team has ever won a state championship. The team's success was led by senior forward Austin Ursua, who scored 11 points and grabbed 3 rebounds.

The team's defense was also a key factor in their victory, as they held Kailua to just 34 points. Saint Francis' coach, Coach [Name], praised his team's effort and teamwork.

"We were very proud of our team's performance tonight," Coach [Name] said. "The boys played hard and showed great teamwork. We are very proud of them and their achievement."

The team will now move on to the quarterfinals of the tournament, where they will face [Opponent].

A group of Saint Francis basketball players and coaches are shown celebrating their victory. They are all smiling and cheering, with some players raising their arms in the air. They are wearing white jerseys with blue lettering.

Farrington's J.P. Saycon missed over Khalil Luis of Pahoa in the Division II state title last night.

Farrington adds another state title

BYRONAL WOOD

Forget the state title. One place at the starting line and it all.

Top-seeded Farrington looked large as capturing the Hawaii Airlines/HHSAA Boys Basketball State Title. Farrington, coached by Coach Mike Smith, won the title for the second time in four years. The Governors' Cup is the state title and Farrington defeated Pahoa 58-45.

Pāhoa captures first state championship

by Stanley Lee
Advertiser Staff Writer

Before the season even started, Pāhoa created a list of goals, one of which was to win the state title.

The Daggers almost didn't clinch a state berth, then almost didn't have enough money to pay for the state trip.

Pāhoa was never fazed through it all. When a seven-point fourth-quarter lead disappeared in last night's title game against Kailua

Pahoa went from barely making the

Even as their lead stretched to double digits, Kailua wanted to remain uncomfortable.

It was only one night earlier that the Surfriders blew a 13-point lead in the semifinals and had to win in overtime. Only toward the end of last night's state championship game did the Surfriders feel a sense of comfort, especially with a state championship trophy in hand

Govs pull out a miracle

By Paul Honda

They could almost walk on water, these miracle Govs.

A desperation 3-pointer by Christian Hernandez forced overtime, and a clutch layup by Jordan Ibana with 10 seconds left gave Farrington a stunning 70-68 win over top-seeded Aiea in the final of the Hawaiian Airlines/HHSAA Boys Basketball Division II State Championships at Blaisdell Arena.

It was a miraculous finish for the Governors (23-6 overall), who had a struggling program when Allan Silva took the helm four years ago.

"I'm walking on air right now. I'm really happy for my guys," said Silva, who remembered a promise he made to himself. "I said in three years, we'll be competitive, and by the fourth or fifth year, we'll win a state championship."

It's one of the most-used clichés in sports: Defense wins championships.

But it is definitely the appropriate phrase to use in describing McKinley's total domination of Kohala in a 55-28 victory last night in the championship game of the inaugural Hawaiian Airlines/HHSAA Division II Boys Basketball State Championships at the Stan Sheriff Center.
