CROWNING ACHIEVEMENT

Punahou does the "unexpected" by edging three-time defending champion Saint Louis to claim the state D1 title

By Paul Honda

Houston Hosoda knows free throws. In a semifinal win over University, he made two clutch free throws to preserve a Punahou win. This time, his free throws extended Punahou's lead to 43-40 with 7.9 seconds left and tilted the Buff

Punahou's boys basketball history and the third under Darren Matsuda, who guided the Buffanblu to titles in 2012 and '18. "2012 was awesome, the first one with DeForest (Buckner) and Malik (Johnson) and (Steven) Lalakaka and all those guys," Matsuda recalled. "2018 was awesome because we lost the two before. This one was really unexpected, especially after losing Tanoa (Scanlan, to a hand injury). That's what makes this one special. The kids really had to grind and really face adversity, and find a way. I think they're going to carry that forever from now on."

By Paul Honda

The path was much more difficult, but the Saint Louis Crusaders are now three-time state champions. Junior forward Pupu Sepulona had 11 points and seven rebounds as top-seeded Saint Louis withstood a strong push by Punahou for a 48-39 win in the Division I title game of the Heide & Cook/HHSAA Boys Basketball State Championships. Sepulona knelt in prayer at the sound of the final buzzer.

"Punahou brought back most of their guys. The whole state improved. What we had to do was make sure we also did that. You can never doubt your

IT'S STILL SAINT LOUIS

The Crusaders survive a tense final quarter against Campbell to repeat as state champs

By Paul Honda
phonda@stanadvertiser.com

With a core of freshmen, sophomores and juniors, top-seeded Saint Louis edged second-seeded Campbell 41-39 to capture its second state title in a row at Simplifi Arena.

Freshman Keanu Meacham sank two foul shots with 20.8 seconds left for a 40-37 Saint Louis lead, and after Josh Ellis drove for a layup to bring Campbell back within one point, there were 10 seconds left.

Campbell fouled Jordan Posiulai with 4.8 seconds left, and he hit the second of his two free throws for a 41-39 lead.

Campbell never got a shot off, turning the ball over on a cross-court inbound pass with four-tenths of a second left.

"Maybe I'll get some sleep now," Saint Louis coach Dan Hale said. "People see the final product, even last year's group, but they don't see all and quarter with two fouls, the Crusaders stood their ground.

"I was just trying to think about the second half and what I'm going to do. Trying not to foul out," said Sepulona, a 6-foot-2 wing/post. "Second half, I had to do my job."

Sepulona scored 11 points in the second half, using explosive bursts and spin moves to get to the rim.

"Every team we face, they have at least one good guy. He's the real deal. We tried to go after him and he got the two fouls early, but we didn't succeed running our plays, executing our defenses," Campbell coach Wyatt Tau said. "We didn't get that much rebounds. Hat's off to Saint Louis. They did a good job."

The drought is over for Saint Louis.
Aiva Arquette poured in 25 points, including a monster dunk in traffic during a crucial second-quarter run, as the top-seeded Crusaders overpowered second-seeded Mililani 57-34 for the boys basketball state title on Saturday night at Blaisdell Arena.
Arquette also hauled in 12 rebounds, adding two assists and two steals while shooting 10-for-19 from the field.
"Coming out tonight, we just had to play as a team. Mililani's a super solid game. They can shoot. We had to fire on all cylinders and come together as a team," the 6-foot-4 senior said. "Saint Louis was at its best Liko Soares scored 16 points and Sage Tolentino had 10 points, 16 rebounds and three blocks as Maryknoll defeated Kamehameha 46-33 to capture its second boys basketball state championship in a row.

Noah Furtado and Justin Yap added seven points each as Maryknoll (29-4) emerged out of the opening round as an unseeded entry from the Interscholastic League of Honolulu to win four games in a row.

A crowd of 2,917 at Stan Sheriff Center saw Maryknoll become the first team since 'Iolani in 2006 to repeat as Division I state champion.

Soares was efficient, smart and gritty. The 6-1 senior played through a meniscus injury, gauging the pain level at "12" on a scale of 0 to 10.

MARYKNOLL MAKES HISTORY

By Paul Honda
phonda@staradvertiser.com

Thirty-five years later, the Maryknoll Spartans are at the top of the boys basketball universe again.

Marcus Tobin, their 6-foot-7 wing, scored 17 points and guard Makoto Kamata tallied 16, including 8-of-8 shooting at the free-throw line, as the top-seeded Spartans overwhelmed Punahou 50-34 on Saturday night for the Snapple/HHSAA Boys Basketball State Championship.

"We know playing in this IJH, there's a lot of pressure, so we have a lot of press breakers and a knowledge of how to break it, and it's really hard to get us to turn the ball over," Spartans coach Kelly Grant said.

In a battle with Punahou for a fourth time this season — the Spartans won the first three — Maryknoll was methodically efficient with only six turnovers, including none as they took a 21-11 lead into the half.

"When you play a team a fourth time, they're going to know what your tendencies are. We have three guys who are excellent at getting inside the defense, and we have guys like Makoto who hit 3-point shots. We have the total package," Grant said.

The last time Maryknoll (30-2) won the state crown was in 1984, when current head coach Kelly Grant was a senior guard playing for then-coach Tony Seibito.

The two talked earlier in the day, as they often do. The scenario this time compared to '84, a little different.

"There was so much pres-

Maryknoll guard Payton Grant lifted the net after cutting it down following his team's state title on Saturday.

A FIRST FOR KAHUKU

By Paul Hoads
pjhoads@staradvertiser.com

Kahuku finally has its first boys basketball state championship.

In one of the most fast-paced state finals in recent memory, top-seeded Kahuku got 23 points from point guard Jessiya Villa and 20 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks from Samuta Avea to outlast second-seeded Punahou 70-55 in the Division I final of the Snapple/HI-3AA Boys Basketball State Championships on Saturday at Stan Sheriff Center.

A crowd of 3,565, rounded double its size, and most of the volume came from Kahuku fans.

"I'm blessed to be at such a great school with great teammates," said Avea, who transferred back home after one year at Brigham (Utah), where he won a title.

Villa was the spark to the engine, putting the tempo all night. He added seven rebounds and made seven of his last eight free-throw attempts as the Red Raiders closed the game with a 14-6 run.

"I shot well from the free-throw line and got everyone involved," Villa said. "To represent Kahuku, everyone is part of this wonderful team."

Dan Fotu, a 6-foot-7 junior, tallied 14 points,

KALAHEO WINS IT ALL

*Kupaa Harrison and Kaleb Gilmore lead the Mustangs
to victory over Iolani*

By Paul Honda
paulhonda@newsobserver.com

Clear the rafters a bit, they're going to need room for another banner above Pete Smith Court.

The Kalaheo Mustangs used every bit of wit and skill, getting a near-flawless floor game from Kupaa Harrison in a point-forward role, and 30 points from marksmen Kaleb Gilmore to stave off Iolani 53-46 to capture the Division I state crown on Saturday night.

Kalaheo (31-3) collected its sixth state title, including two in the past three seasons under coach Alice Smith.

"I never got to win one during my (playing) career," Smith said. "But for Kupaa, that's his second title."

Harrison, well aware of Gilmore's sizzling ankle — injured against Kahuku in the semifinals — took command much of the night in running the offense. He looked and played more like a 6-foot-5 point guard than a forward. He didn't score until the fourth quar-

Kalaheo's back on top

By Paul Honda
phonda@staradvertiser.com

In the end, it might have been the most thrilling boys basketball title game in island history.

The Kalaheo Mustangs took every shot the Maryknoll Spartans could give, blew a 19-point lead, then relied on the clutch shooting of Josh Ko to pull out a remarkable 60-54 overtime win on Saturday night in the Division I final of the Hawaiian Airlines/ HIESAA Boys Basketball State Championships.

A crowd of 3,808 often sounded like a full house at Blaisdell Arena as the Mustangs earned their first D-I title since 2001.

Ko poured in 26 points, including six in the extra period, as the second-seeded Mustangs finally took command against the resilient Spartans. Kalaheo went 39-4 this season, becoming the first team to win D-II and D-I titles in consecutive years.

"This one's for my father. Every scored a couple of baskets that were crucial. Whenever they needed a big basket, they hit 'em, gotta give credit to those guys.

Kalaheo got yeoman defensive efforts from Kalei Zuttermeister and Kupaa Harrison, who are normally known more for their 3-point shooting skills.

Zuttermeister, at 6-foot-3 and 170 pounds, battled Maryknoll's Goliath-like center, 6-9 Tobias Schramm from start to finish. Harrison, a rail-thin 6-3 sophomore, pushed as hard as he could under the rim against 6-5 Hyrum Harris.

"I just listened to Coach Albia and boxed out as much as I could," said Harrison, who scored six of his eight points in the second half.

Maryknoll was spectacular in its comeback from a 19-point deficit, using its size and hustle on the boards to rally.

"I just told them to be patient," Grant said. "When we were at Kaimuki, that happened to us (in the 2007 state title game), we

Bulldogs' tough inside game, defense too much for Punahou

In a storybook finish to an up-and-down season, Kaimuki won its first boys basketball state championship since 1993 last night by overpowering Punahou, 61-53, before a screaming fans at the Stan Sheriff Center.

The Bulldogs, who lost five games in January including a shocking upset to 3-9 Roosevelt, finished the regular and post-season at 14-5 by surprisingly building a 10-point fourth-quarter lead over the No. 1-seeded Buffanblu (13-2) despite All-State forward Keone Reyes sitting on the bench with four fouls.

Iolani captures fourth state title in a row

Raiders make history with 62-51 win over Kahuku

By WES NAKAMA
Advertiser Staff Writer

Iolani's boys basketball team dribbled and shot its way into the record book last night, racing past Kahuku, 62-51, for its unprecedented fourth straight Hawai'i High School Athletic Association championship.

The Raiders, with only one senior starter, finished the season with an overall record of 30-2 by winning its 100th consecutive game against Hawai'i opponents before an energetic crowd of 4,205 at Blaisdell Arena. Iolani's last defeat to a Hawai'i team was a 68-60 loss to Kalāheo on Dec. 8, 2001.

As with the previous 99 victories, last night's was achieved thanks to an efficient, unselfish offense and relentless perimeter defense.

"It's all ball pressure," said senior Kyle Pape, who finished with a game-high 27 points and scored 93 in three tournament games. "We wore them down as the game went on, and then it came down to free throws."

The Raiders also dominated in that area, sinking 22 of 31 (71 percent), including 11 of 13 in Iolani's Kyle Pape averaged 31 points in three games and was named the state tournament's most outstanding player.

The shot of the night came from spectator Jack Gayle, who swished an underhanded heave from halfcourt to win $10,000 in a halftime promotion.

But the really big baskets came from a more familiar source — Iolani School's prolific duo of Derrick Low and Bobby Nash — who combined for 28 points to lead the Raiders to a 61-37 victory over Saint Louis and their second straight Hawaiian Airlines State Championship.

It was Iolani's third title in six seasons and fifth overall. It also was the most decisive championship win in 24 years, as a Blaisdell Arena

Sophomore Low scores 33 to carry Raiders, 58-57

By Wes Nakama

In a once-in-a-generation performance, Iolani School sophomore Derrick Low scored a career-high 33 points last night to lead the Raiders to a pulsating 58-57 victory over Kalaheo and the Hawaiian Airlines State Basketball Cham-throws.

"Ia scored mostly from the perimeter, but Derrick did it mostly on penetration," said Kalaheo assistant coach Chico Furtado, who played for Iolani in the 1975 tournament. "He is so under control ... it's hard to get a charge on him, because he knows when to pull up. Like good players do, he rose to the occasion."

To their credit, so did the Mustangs. After falling behind by seven at the half, they closed it to 43-38 after three periods after putbacks by Charles Elliott and Alama-Francis. Kalaheo started the final quarter with a 6-2 run to tie it

Jesse Lam snuck inside and tipped in a missed free throw with 36 seconds left in overtime last night to help Punahou School beat Kalaheo, 51-47, in the Hawaiian Airlines Boys State Basketball Championship game.

A crowd of 4,750 watched at Stan Sheriff Center as Punahou won its eighth title in the 43rd renewal of the Hawaii High School Athletic Association Tournament.

"I had noticed (the Kalaheo inside rebounder) had been leaning forward all night, so I slid behind him and caught him off guard," said Lam, whose clutch basket gave Punahou a 49-47 lead.

Punahou had been behind as much as 10 points after a 12-2 Kalaheo blitz in the middle of the second quarter. At halftime, "We emphasized for them to be patient on both offense and defense," coach Alan Lum said.

"It's very sad that one team lost. They both are champions," Lum added.

Kalaheo's Julian Sensley, who scored 13 points in the first half, was allowed only four shots in the second half and didn't score. "Brandon (Brooks) picked it up but it was team defense, no one person, as it has been all year," Lum said.

After trailing for nearly 19 minutes, Punahou tied the score at 43 on Zach Stephens' third 3-pointer with 2:11 left in regulation.

Iolani outlasts Kalaheo

Raiders take state title in double OT

Advertiser Staff

As good as they were, it was an admittedly lucky play that lifted the top-seeded Iolani Raiders to a 62-59 victory over second-seeded Kalaheo in two overtimes last night to win the 42nd state boys basketball championship.

A Blaisdell Arena crowd of 3,812 sweated through the pulsating final game, which featured big rallies, eight lead changes in the first four minutes of the fourth quarter, sometimes remarkable marksmanship (Kalaheo made five of six 3-point attempts in the first half) and unrelenting defense.

But in a well-played final, it was a terrible pass that finally broke the deadlock 50 seconds into the second overtime.

Iolani's Shawn Christensen tried to pass to teammate Cord Anderson under the basket but threw the ball about three feet over Anderson's head.

It caromed off the backboard, right into the hands of 5-foot-6 Douglas Jackson in the paint. He took it back up and scored for a 53-51 Iolani lead.

"You've got to be lucky sometimes," Iolani coach Mark Mugiishi said. "The kids were looking at me,

Moanalua claims state hoops title

Improbable run ends with 58-57 win over Iolani

By Stacy Kaneshiro
Advertiser Staff Writer

There must have been Menehunes in Blaisdell Arena last night. And not just the ones from Moanalua High School.

How else can one explain, for the second time in three nights, the Moanalua basketball team's miracle season? All its players could do was watch its fate kick out of the rim. And kick out again.

The Menehunes survived a scary ending, watching brothers Derek and Shawn Christensen's layup and putback, respectively, bounce harmlessly off the rim as time expired to hang on to a 58-57 win over Iolani in the championship of the Hawaiian Air/Hawaii High School Athletic Association state basketball tournament.

The Menehunes (25-2) are the first team to repeat since University in 1988. The Raiders end their season at 23-4.

"They had a layup and a put-

Moanalua wins first state title

Top-ranked Kalaheo is set down, 49-44

By Stacy Kaneshiro
Advertiser Staff Writer

Mission accomplished.
Reeling after a heart-breaking playoff loss a little more than a week ago, Moanalua got sweet revenge, defeating top-ranked and top-seeded Kalaheo, 49-44, to win its first state boys' basketball title last night.

An estimated Blaisdell Arena crowd of 3,500 saw the 40th Hawaii High School Athletic Association/Nissan finale.

"This feels satisfying," Moanalua coach Eddie Maruyama said. "All the hard work has paid off."

Maruyama was a starting guard on the last Moanalua to reach the final, in 1979, when the Menchunes were drubbed by Kalaheo 60-28.

But more satisfying was the way Moanalua rebounded from a 52-51 loss to Kalaheo in the Oahu Interscholastic Association semifinals. The Menchunes (19-7), ranked seventh in The Advertiser's Top 10, lost that game on a basket at the buzzer. But since then, they have reeled off five straight victories.

"We were on a mission," Moanalua senior center Issac Castro said. "After that loss, we knew we could hang and we proved it tonight."

Castro was a big part of the Menchune uprising. He led the way with 22 points, including an uncharacteristic three 3-pointers. He had only two 3-pointers during the regular season.

"I felt it," Castro said. "I knew I was on. I had a little jitters, but once I got that out, I couldn't miss."

Maruyama joked, "We gave him the yellow light. We were going to let him shoot until he missed."

Even Kalaheo's knowing he could hit from the perimeter couldn't cool his hot hand.

"We wanted to get up on him," said Kalaheo coach Pete Smith. "He just made his shots."

Mustangs hold off
St. Louis, 49-42,
in state title game

By Stacy Kaneshiro
Advertiser Staff Writer

Greg Miller amassed 15 points and 15 rebounds to lead Kalaheo over St. Louis, 49-42, in the championship game of the state high school boys' basketball tournament last night at Blaisdell Arena.

The top-seeded Mustangs, ranked first in the Advertiser Top 10, completed their season 15-0 and won their first state title since 1985. The second-seeded and second-ranked Crusaders end at 13-2.

"Greg was super," Kalaheo coach Pete Smith said. "He posted up well, he took it to the hole well. He's done it for us all year."

About 4,500 saw Kalaheo win its first Hawaiian High School Athletic Association/Nissan title since 1985, when it beat Radford. That team also was coached by Smith. Smith also played

Chong sinks jump shot, Warriors, 53-52

By Stacy Kaneshiro
Advertiser Staff Writer

Joseph Chong answered the million dollar question last night.

Down 52-51 with 4.5 seconds left, Iolani's 5-foot-10 reserve guard — and long-range shooting specialist — drained a 12-footer to give the Raiders a 53-52 win over Kamehameha for the state boys' basketball title at the Blaisdell Arena.

"I was on the bench and Coach (Mark Mugiishi) asked me if he put me in, would I make the shot," Chong said. "I said I'd make the shot."

A crowd of about 4,800 saw the second-seeded Raiders win their first state crown since 1983. Iolani, ranked second in The Advertiser Top 10, ends its season at 14-1. No. 3 Kamehameha is 16-3. All of its Chong scored seven points from three baskets, but two of them were biggies. Before his game-winner, he also nailed a 3-pointer that helped erase a nine-point deficit.

The Raiders trailed 47-38 with 5:15 left after Kamehameha's Adam Lee hit both ends of his one-and-one. Then Todd King gave his team a wake-up call. His slam dunk with 4:51 left ignited an 11-0 run that put the Raiders up 49-47 with 2:20 remaining after Dean Shimamoto converted both ends of a one-and-one.

"Nothing but net," he said. Warriors coach Jim Winchester said it would have been second-guessing to anticipate Chong taking the final shot.

"The problem they pose is that they're not easy to guard," he said. "Anybody had the possibility of scoring."

Mugiishi said he knew Chong could hit the shot. Earlier, he inserted Chong, who answered with a 3-pointer during the Raiders' 11-0 run.

"When we needed that last shot, we said we're going to put it in Joe's hands," Mugiishi said. "And Joe hit it. It's

Defending champion Hilo falls in 3 OTs

By Stacy Kaneshiro

In perhaps the best state high school boys' championship game ever played, Kamehameha defeated Hilo, 76-73, in triple overtime last night.

A Blaisdell Arena crowd of 5,142 saw the Warriors overcome a 34-25 halftime deficit, fight off a relentless Viking charge in the fourth period before finally putting away the defending state champions.

Kahi Villa's three-point play with about seven seconds left broke a 73-all tie and gave the Warriors their first state title since 1976.

Hilo ends Oahu dominance

Defeats Kalaheo to win state title

By Stacy Kaneshiro
Advertiser Staff Writer

Hilo's Vikings struck early, often and in every way to defeat Kalaheo, 59-44, and capture the championship of the 35th annual state high school boys' basketball tournament last night at Blaisdell Arena.

Hilo became the first Neighbor Island team since 1964 — when the Vikings beat Puna-hou in the final — to win the state championship.

A crowd of 4,870 saw the Vikings complete their season with a 21-0 record. Kalaheo finished 17-1.

"A lot of people thought that we couldn't play," said Vikings forward Paul Lee. "We wanted to show that the Neighbor Islands can do it."

Oahu teams had won all but two state titles (St. Joseph's won in '83) until last night.

Punahou wins Defeats Maui for state title

By Ferd Borsch
Advertiser Staff Writer

Chris Miller and Kevin Wong combined for 40 points in leading Punahou School to a hard-fought 68-58 victory over the Maui Sabers last night in the championship game of the 34th annual state high school basketball tournament.

Miller, a dominating 6-foot-5, 235-pound center who ruled the inside, scored 21 points and grabbed 14 rebounds. Wong, a slender 6-foot-6 forward, finished with 19 points and eight rebounds.

Ty Brauch scored a game-high 22 points for the Sabers, who played the Buffanblu (15-0) on even terms until late in the third quarter. Maui finished with a 14-5 record.

A crowd of 4,435 at Blaisdell Arena saw Punahou win its seventh state title, the most for any school since the tournament was started in 1957. St. Louis has won six titles.

It was also the third state championship for Chris McLachlin, who returned as Punahou's basketball coach this season after 11 years as the school's highly successful volleyball coach. McLachlin also guided Punahou to state basketball championships in 1975 and 1979.

"I have a lot of respect for Maui," said Punahou coach Chris McLachlin. "I wonder what it would have been like if they only had to play three nights like us. They showed a lot of heart and courage, but so did our guys."

Brauch, whose two 29-point performances started the Sabers on their way to the title round, was pleased with his team's play in the tournament.

"I think we did a great job to get this far," Brauch said. "We just couldn't get the last one."

Maui coach Gilbert Silva said he felt "we had all the chance in the world to win, but we had to capitalize on turnovers. We missed some layups and I think we were a little intimidated by their height."

But the Buffanblu did not start to pull away for good until late in the third quarter and early in the fourth quarter

Rams hold off Warrior rally to finish up a perfect season

By Dave Reardon

They didn't do it in the steam-roller fashion some thought they might. But the Radford Rams completed a season-long quest to win the championship game of the state high school basketball tournament last night.

A turnstyle-count crowd of 6,541 at Blaisdell Center watched as Radford hung on to edge Kamehameha, 57-55. Radford completed an unbeaten (19-0) season. But it wasn't easy.

The Rams survived their third consecutive night of battle with an Interscholastic League of Honolulu power, beating St. Louis and Iolani in earlier rounds.

All three games were close, and Kamehameha came oh-so-close to its first state title since 1976.

Radford coach Jim Alegre said he expected it to be that way, even though his team was by far the tallest in the tournament and ran roughshod through the other teams.

University reigns again, 38-36

By Curtis Murayama
Advertiser Staff Writer

Brad Stewart scored on a put-back off the glass with three seconds left, helping University High nip Maryknoll, 38-36, and cap one of the most dramatic comebacks in state high school basketball history.

A Blackwell Arena crowd of 4,787 watched defending champion University become the first team to repeat as state champion since Punahou (1979-81).

Maryknoll had one opportunity to tie but Kimo Padello's double-pump, 35-foot shoot while being guarded by 6-foot-8 James Williams was off the mark as the horn sounded.

"This has got to be the sweetest of them all," UHS coach Darryl Gabriel said.

And probably the most thrilling.

University trailed by as many as 16 points twice (19-3 and 23-7) in the second period and 25-13 at halftime.

But all that changed in a thrill-packed third period during

UHS wins state championship

Jr. 'Bows repel Punahou, 47-43

By Stephen Tsai

University High overcame brief flings with insult and injury to gain a 47-43 victory over Punahou last night in the championship game of the state high school basketball tournament.

The Blaisdell Arena crowd of 4,700 saw the Junior Rainbows win their first state basketball title since 1978.

UHS has played Punahou in all three of its trips to the finals.

UHS ensured its third victory of the season over Punahou with accurate free-throw shooting late in the game. The Junior Rainbows, who led the entire second half, hit six of their last seven free throws in the final 1:15.

But they dictated the game's tone long before that by weathering two hold-your-breath moments.

Punahou stunned UHS by racing to a 6-0 lead in the game's first three minutes.

The Junior Rainbows — whom coach Bobby Au said were "surprised and slightly embarrassed" by the early deficit — then switched to an aggressive man-to-man defense. The move seemed to strip Punahou of its perimeter of-

St. Louis ascends to state title

Maryknoll falls, 37-31

By Stephen Tsai
Advertiser Staff Writer

St. Louis, with accurate free-throw shooting in the final two minutes, defeated Maryknoll, 37-31, last night in the championship game of the state high school basketball tournament at Blandell Arena.

About 4,800 fans saw the Crusaders make their last eight free-throw attempts to win their first state basketball title since 1968 and their sixth overall.

"It feels beautiful," said St. Louis center Vincent Kiste, who made six free throws down the stretch. "I feel faint."

Said Crusader point guard Bill Schulte: "This is kind of like the final chapter in a book. The book is full now."

For a while, the situation appeared bleak for St. Louis, which trailed 30-27 with two minutes to play.

But Maryknoll, which had used a box-and-one defense to deny St. Louis' interior offense in the second half, suddenly retreated into a zone.

"I was surprised they did that," St. Louis coach Kaipe Spencer said. "It let Billy Schulte take charge for us."

Schulte, who was stalked by designated defenders nearly the entire game, hit a jump shot from the right side to make it 30-29 with 1:56 left.

Manly Williams then intercepted the Crusader's inbound pass at midcourt for

Rally helps Mustangs to state title

By Curtis Murayama

Peter Ranta converted both ends of a one-and-one free-throw opportunity with five seconds left, lifting the Kalaheo Mustangs past Radford, 57-55, in the state high school basketball championship last night before 5,797 fans at Blaisdell Arena.

The victory earned Kalaheo its first state title in 11 years of varsity basketball. The Mustangs, top seeded and ranked No. 1 in The Advertiser statewide poll, finished the season 17-0, the first team to finish unbeaten since Kailua (1982). They have won 34 of their last 35 games, spanning three seasons. Radford finished 17-4.

But the title didn't come easy for Kalaheo, which had to overcome a 15-point second-period deficit and then hold off a late Ram charge.

Chad Liftee's two free throws gave the Mustangs a 55-49 lead with 47 seconds left.

But the last 47 seconds were almost a blur of action.

It followed this sequence: Radford's Shelly Brown hit a 15-footer, making it 55-51 with 40 seconds left.

Red Raiders are No. 1 after all

*Iolani

By Curtis Murayama
Honolulu Star-Bulletin

"The best team in the state."
The Iolani players have heard that line before, since they were supposed to be great.

But that label is no longer a burden to them. They are the best team in the state. By far.

Last night at Hanauli Center, the Red Raiders proved it, before 7,588 fans, beating Leilehua, 62-46, in the final of the 27th annual Hawaii High School Athletic Association state basketball tournament.

"I heard that many times," Iolani center Frank Lulu said. "Now we can say, 'We are the best team in the state.'"

Said guard Scott Laboy: "Now we can say it, now we can. This is the best day of our life. We waited four years for this. It feels so good."

Added guard Keith Spencer: "We wanted to prove to everybody we're the best."

Lulu, Laboy and Spencer, all seniors now, were starters as freshmen. Then, they were labeled the team of the future, then the team of destiny, then

They took a rather circuitous route, but Iolani's Red Raiders are back where they started in the beginning of the season — at the head of the class in state high school basketball.

The Red Raiders reclaimed the distinction as the No. 1 team in the state last night with a resounding 62-46 victory over Leilehua in the final of the Hawaii High School Athletic Association state tournament.

A sellout crowd of 7,588 at Hanauli Arena witnessed the Red Raiders in their best. Iolani took a 10-0 lead 6:21 into the game and it was evident that the Red Raiders were the superior team.

An aggressive man-to-man defense with trapping principles seemed to rattle Leilehua in the opening minutes. "We wanted to force them to take shots they didn't want to take," Iolani assistant coach Bobbie Years said. "We didn't want them to run any patterns."

The only patterns the Mules were running were in circles. Leilehua missed its first seven fieldgoal attempts and turned the ball over three times to fall behind quickly.

Meanwhile, Iolani rebounded with a vengeance, used a variety of defenses to find a tempo

Roe wakes up in time, puts Spartans to sleep

By Curtis Murayama

Advertiser Sports Writer

Kailua forward Andy Roe decided it was time to rise and shine. And because he did, he and his Surfrider teammates have confirmed they are the best high school basketball team in the state.

Roe gave Kailua the finishing thrust it needed and led the Surfriders to a 47-42 victory over snake-bit Maryknoll and the state title last night before 5,606 fans at Blaisdell Center.

Kailua has been ranked No. 1 in The Advertiser poll most of the season and was the No. 1 seed in the tournament. But the Surfriders had their doubters, especially since they lost to Maryknoll twice during the pre-season.

With Kailua's more spectacular forward, George Puou, sitting out in foul trouble, Roe decided to make his move. He started the Surfriders going by scoring eight of their first 10 points in the fourth period to put Kailua up to stay.

"If he's (Puou) out, I gotta take up the slack," said Roe. "It was there so I took it."

The Surfriders led 33-31 entering the final period of a game that

"See this bum (Roe), he finally comes on in the last game of the season," said Kailua guard Bart Schley, kidding his 6-foot-3 senior teammate.

"Andy peaked," said Santos.

And so did his Kailua team. The Surfriders, playing heady basketball throughout the game and the tournament, hit 10 of their last 12 shots from the field, including 4-for-5 performances in each of the last two periods.

Hale the Puns one more time

Don't ask Punahou center Dan Hale how it feels to lose in the state basketball tournament. He doesn't know.

The 6-foot-5 senior last night did what he's been doing for the past three years — he led the Buffaloes to a state crown. The victims the past two years were Moanalua and University. Last night before 6,085 fans at Blaisdell Center it was Maryknoll, 41-40. The Punahou mystique continues.

In 1979, the Puns had an excellent supporting cast. But the past two years were different. They were seeded third in last year's tournament and fourth this year and weren't even the Interscholastic League of Honolulu champions in each case.

But that didn't stop Hale from working his usual post-season magic.

"We play our best ball at the end . . . when it counts," said Hale, who said this year's title was the most satisfying. "We had to work for everything this year. We had a bunch of JV players and other guys who hardly played. We stuck together."

And his performance last night exemplified Punahou's struggle to the top.

Hale limped out with 3:58 left in the second quarter with an injured left knee. He returned after the half with a tape around his knee and fire in his eyes.

"I can't bend it but as long as I could breathe I was going to be out there," he said.

Besides scoring 18 points and grabbing six rebounds, Hale also came through when it counted.

With 2:24 left in the game, he hit a 15-footer to give the Puns a 38-35 lead. Maryknoll closed the gap to 38-37 but Hale was fouled with 54 seconds

Puns whip UHS for all the marbles

By CLYDE MIZUMOTO
Advertiser Assistant Sports Editor

The deeper the wound, the sweeter the revenge. Just ask the Punahou Buffaloes, who pummeled season-long nemesis University High, 73-60, last night to capture the 24th annual state basketball championship.

The victory gave the defending champion Buffaloes their fifth state title and came right on the heels of what was probably one of the lower points in Punahou basketball history.

It was just a week ago that the Buffaloes suffered an embarrassing 79-87 licking at the hands of the very same Jr. Bows. The stinging setback stuck like a heated poker in the hearts and minds of the Buffaloes. They knew they weren't that bad a bunch.

"We were shocked, we didn't think we'd be blown out like that," said John Kamana, who made his fifth game in state tournament play a most sweet one.

Said Punahou coach Ray Buck, who took a team the ultimate distance in his first year, "A week ago we were embarrassed . . . embarrassed. They beat us by 23 and it gets to a guy who has any pride and our guys have a tremendous amount of pride."

in a trance to calmly sink 33 of 39 free throws. Twenty three of those free throws came in the second half to help Punahou ward off any UHS resurgence.

"They had to feel and if we missed those free throws, then they're back in the ball game. But we made them," said Buck. "We had a free-throw shooting contest in practice today and I think that really helped. I think Danny Hale won it like contest."

If he didn't, the 6-6 junior sure made up for it last night. Hale and Richard Haenisch, named the tournament's co-MVPs by The Honolulu Advertiser, keyed the first-half surge and together were 22 of 34 from the foul line for the evening.

Hale had 17 of his 19 points and 8 of his 10 rebounds in the first half.

Buffanblus bury Moanalua, 60-28

Punahou takes state title

By CLYDE MIZUMOTO
Advertiser Assistant Sports Editor

After being relegated to a bridesmaid's role the last two years, Punahou shook that second-class status with a vengeance last night — whipping Moanalua, 60-28, for the championship of the Hawaii High School Athletic Association State Basketball Tournament.

The Buffanblus had been saddled with the runnerup role in '77 and '78 — losing by two to Radford and then by two again in overtime to University High. They were hungry, who wouldn't be. Three of the Buffanblus — Darryl Gabriel, Larry Tavares and John Kamana — had played in the two previous championship games.

"I've got two silvers (second-place medals). I just had to have that gold," said Tavares, a smile creasing his face.

Ironically, the Buffanblus will have to go a few days without their and 4-3 deficits, the Buffanblus were in complete control and awesome as ever.

While the Buffanblus turned red-

That was it. The game was over. The Buffanblus press and patience and experience had surfaced at the same time Moanalua was sinking deeper and deeper.

"We came out very hungry tonight," said Punahou coach Chris McLachlin. "I think it was a matter of time before our experience showed. We just went out and executed our own game and eventually it turned around."

Moanalua coach Eric Heu agreed. "We started off exactly how we wanted to but then some kind of feeling came over them (our kids)," said Heu. "I don't know if we were awed or what. But Punahou is really something. They're a real team, they play good team basketball. I think their boys really wanted it tonight."

The Buffanblus desire was especially evident in that first half. They

UHS wins it in overtime

Someone up there must like Evans Morales and University High because their prayers were answered last night before 5,378 witnesses.

With four seconds left in overtime, Morales put up a prayer shot that swished through the net and gave University High School an heart-tugging 65-63 victory over Punahou in the State Class AA High School Tournament championship game at Blaisdell Center.

It was Morales' only shot of the game and it couldn't have come at a more critical time for Claude Hottendorff's Junior Rainbows.

For the Buffalibus of Chris McLachlin, it was another heart-breaking finale to a fine season. Punahou finished as the state runner-up last year, too, when it lost to Radford.

Earlier last night, Baldwin High's Bears silenced those who thought they were seeded too high at No. 3 when they whipped top-seeded Radford for third place, 71-58.

University High's championship victory more than made up for four other losses to the Buffalibus during the 1977-78 season. Just five nights ago, the Buffalibus had blown the Junior Beas off the same Blaisdell Center court with a too-easy 62-43 win in the ILL championship game.

But last night it was a different UHS team that took the floor against its season-long nemesis. The Junior Beas came to play, as they had throughout the tournament in a complete turnaround from their showing down the stretch of the ILL season. They sank 55 percent of their floor shots.

The Junior Beas nearly blew the Puna off the court in the third quarter — taking as much as a 14-point lead (37-23) before the Buffalibus man-to-man pressure began to take its toll.

That press, foul trouble by 6-foot-6 center Craig Bell, and the hot shooting of Punahou's John Kamens steadily whittled away the UH lead and forced the game into an extra period tied at 61-all.

In the overtime, it looked as though McLachlin would have his second state title as Bell had fouled out early in the fourth period and Mark Tuinei's layup had finally given the Puna the lead, something they had never had since the four-minute mark of the opening period.

After Tuinei's bucket made it 63-61 Punahou, Nathan Spencer hit the front end of a one-and-one free throw situation to cut the margin to one point. The Puna then went into a stall — calling up nearly two minutes of the clock — before Larry Tavares was fouled.

It seemed that the UHS stock dipped to its lowest point as Leroy Lulu committed the foul — his fifth — and Tavares, a fine free-throw shooter, had a one-and-one and a chance to put Punahou up by three with 21 seconds remaining in the overtime.

But Tavares missed, Spencer grabbed the rebound and UHS called time-out with 16 seconds to play.

After a strategy talk from Hottendorff, his son Kirk brought the ball upcourt, penetrated inside the free-throw line and dumped off a pass to Spencer, who was crossing from left to right across the lane. Spencer missed the layup but was fouled by Darryl Gabriel, his fifth of the game.

Spencer connected on his first attempt to tie it at 63-63. McLachlin called time in hopes of rattling the 6-2 senior's nerves, and Spencer missed his next attempt but the ball caromed off to Morales.

With just a hint of a surprised look on his face, sophomore guard Morales flipped the rebound back up from about 12 feet and the ball dropped through for the victory and the championship.

Actually, Punahou had one last desperation attempt. As Morales was being mobbed by his twin brother Eric and other teammates, Jason Oshima raced downcourt, took a pass and put up a 12-foot baseline shot at the buzzer. But Spencer came sailing by and deflected it as the buzzer sounded.

Lulu, as is his custom, led the Junior Beas in scoring with 18 points but had to take a back seat to team-Radford High, the only team in the State with a perfect record, found a perfect way to write the finish of the 1976-77 basketball season with a 48-46 triumph over Punahou in the State finals last night.

A crowd of 6,571 at Blaisdell Center watched the Rams end the ILH's three-year hold on the State Class AA crown.

Radford's secret to a 20th victory last night was the ability to come up with the big play time and again.

sword of experience.

It was an appropriate ending for the Rams who opened their perfect season with a one-point win over OIA West rival Millam and were called on numerous times to preserve the winning streak with big plays.

Radford's all-senior starting lineup looked coolest when the going was toughest.

Punahou's hopes, built heavily on youth (one freshman and one sophomore start), perhaps were hurt by the same blend. They hit only 46 per cent from the free-throw line and had seven third-period turnovers.

ford afloat in the first half when Punahou was dominating the rebounding.

Mann hit eight straight points in the first quarter, cutting a 12-3 gap to 12-11; gave Radford its first tie (20-20) in the second quarter and helped spirit the Rams into the lead for good in the third period. He came up with four points down the fourth-period stretch as insurance.

All of Mann's heroics, however, would have been wasted without clutch free throws by O'Hara (4-for-4 in the fourth period), Mike Otto and Martin Smith, plus a pair of timely field goals from Richard Conte.

Punahou and Radford hit an identical 36 per cent from the field in the first half, but Punahou couldn't make a 19-12 edge in free-throw attempts pay off, hitting only eight for 42 per cent. Punahou out-rebounded Radford 22-12 at that juncture.

Punahou, a team that lived with defense all year, died partly because of Radford's in the third period. The Puns committed seven turnovers and went 1-for-9 from the field while Radford went without a turnover over the same stretch and managed three field goals for a 32-28 edge entering the fourth period.

Kam king of 'AA'

Kamehameha, the "other" team in the ILH all season long, became "THE" team in the State last night with a 46-18 victory over Maryknoll to capture the Hawaii State High School "AA" basketball title at the Blaisdell Memorial Center.

With 6,890 witnesses last night, the Warriors gained revenge over Maryknoll, the team that had overshadowed them all year in the ILH.

The trophy that went with the victory should look nice in the Kamehameha trophy case alongside the one earned by many of the same players for their Oahu Bowl football victory just months ago.

IT WAS a tough way to go out for colorful Tony Sellitto and his Free-way Five from Maryknoll, who had dominated the ILH, had been number one in the Advertiser State basketball poll most of the year and made the rise from the class A ranks in one year.

Kalahou, the OIA regular season champion, took the third place trophy with a 61-51 win over Pearl City. Lelehu took the consolation crown with a 79-40 verdict over Hilo.

Although the Warriors led all of the second half, they really didn't being bounded by Turner and his sidekick, Lester Seto, came around in the final stanza but by then it was too little, too late.

THE WARRIORS command, sliced to five with 2:21 remaining, got a boost from Turner who used his deft touch and some cooperative bounces to hike the Kamehameha edge to 42-38.

Mike Ostrowski and Fletcher put in back-to-back field goals, cutting it to three with 0:48 on the clock.

Villa, who topped the Warriors the night before with 14, came back with 16 for high scoring honors while Turner closed with 13. Fletcher's 12 led Maryknoll.

You couldn't have sliced the first half much closer. The score was deadlocked 11-11 at the end of the first quarter and 22-22 at the half.

Maryknoll led three times in the first half by five points but couldn't put any more room than that between themselves and Kamehameha.

THE SPARTANS, who usually get the game halfway in the bag in the first half, hit one of their coldest streaks this year, hitting on only 3 of 29 shots from the field in the first half.

Kalahou won the rematch of the OIA title game participants, holding off Pearl City for third place honors.

THE MUSTANGS saw what had become a nine-point lead reduced to three (37-40) with 4:35 left. Robin Moss stepped in with a pair of free throws but the Chargers' Neville Brandt hit two straight field goals to reduce the Kalahou edge to one point with 2:30 remaining.

Randy Adams gave the Mustangs the scoring boost they needed, though, with a pair of free throws and the Mustangs went on to outscore Pearl City 8-3 the rest of the way.

Moss and Brandt, the two big men, shared high scoring honors with 22 points while Adams managed 16 and Charger Ken Morrison had 13.

Paul Martin and Tim Harris paced Lelehu, which finally got its fast-break offense untracked in post-season play. Martin hit on 12 of 18 shots to finish with 29 points and 24 rebounds. Harris was even better—knocking in 10 of 13 from the field in a 21-point effort.

Saipaia goes on a one-man rampage

Ia Saipaia, a 6-foot-3 junior, put on a dazzling exhibition of long-range shooting to lead Punahou to its second straight State High School basketball championship last night at the H.I.C.

The Samoan forward scored 38 points on 15 field goals and eight of nine from the free throw line as Punahou toppled top-seeded Kailua, 77-70, last night before a crowd of 5,911—held down by live television of the game. It was the second straight year the Puns beat the Surfriders in the finals.

THE GAME was close most of the way, with Punahou taking a 35-34 halftime lead on Chris Glomb's 10-foot jumper from the baseline at the buzzer.

The second-seeded Puns never fell behind in the second half but the Surfriders hung on and trailed only by two, 56-54, at the three-quarter stop.

Ia Saipaia scored 10 of his 38

1:10 remaining on the quarter. Mike Jones and Furtado scored to make it 46-40, going into the final period.

Baldwin tied it 48-48 with eight straight points with 4:40 remaining. Then it was nip and tuck with the score tied four more times before Scanlan's bucket.

Madrid with 14 points, Shimabuku with 10 and Lono Mahi, also with 10, also led Baldwin. Madrid had three thefts. Iolani outrebounded Baldwin 26-20 with Scanlan, Jones and Moore combining for 24 of those rebounds.

history repeats--Rams win State crown, 51-50

By MONTE ITO
Advertiser Sports Writer

History repeated itself twice last night as the Radford Rams came from behind for the second straight night to nip Kamehameha, 51-50, before 7,600 delirious fans to win the 15th annual Hawaii High School State basketball championship at the H. I. C. Arena.

Last night's game was a repeat of the 1969 final in Hilo which the Rams also won. And it was a repeat of Friday night's triumph over Punahou.

FOR THE second straight

The Warriors suddenly went cold from the floor and got only one field goal in 13 attempts, and that with 1:30 remaining in the third quarter by Lance Kahunui. Meanwhile, the Rams hit five of 13, with Jim Van Ness getting three crucial baskets. Van Ness' two field goals closed the gap to 33-29 with 3:15 remaining in the quarter.

With 2:10 on the clock, Van Ness closed it to two points, 35-33, with a corner shot.

Kahunui then came through with Kam's first field goal of the quarter to his ankle and had to leave the game.

WILLIAM Villa got a free throw to make it 38-33 as the quarter ended.

Van Ness continued his heroics with a five-foot jump shot and Bill Barrett hit from the corner for his first fielder of the game to close the score to 38-37. But Abe Lota connected on a 20-footer, only to have Jeff Steig and Bobby David net consecutive baskets to put the Rams ahead, 41-40, for the first time at 5:20 of the last quarter. The Warriors tied it up 41-from the foul line and Mark Jessel hooked from the key to make it 44-41 with 4:15 on the clock.

Lota dribbled in for a lay up, but Van Ness hit a 20-footer to keep the Rams ahead by three points with three minutes to go.

BUT THE Warriors were not finished. A three point play by Jess tied it up again, 46-46.

Steig regained the lead for Radford with a lay up with 2:05 left in the game and David picked up a point on a one-and-one to make it 49-46. Lota scored at 1:25, only to

Puns win first State hoop title

By MONTE ITO
Hawaii Sports Writer

Punahou won the first State basketball championship in the school's long history last night as coach Bud Scott's team staved off frantic Farrington surges to defeat the Governors 56 to 44 at the Honolulu International Center Arena.

It was also sweet revenge for the Puns before a roaring, sell-out crowd of 7,500 for those same Governors had knocked them off 43-46 in the Interscholastic League in the Interscholastic League's title contest.

THE Hilo Vikings captured third place by defeating the Castle Knights 50 to 46. Consolation honors went to Kahu's Red Raiders with an 60-46 win over the St. Anthony Trojans of Maui.

The expert shooting of Jimmy Lota and Steve Shupe, plus tremendous rebounding by the latter who used his 6-6 height to advantage, were key factors in the Punahou win. And it was two free throws by Shupe when the Goves pulled up to within three points with less than five minutes to play that stemmed the Kahu boys' rally.

Joert Marcel, high scorer for the game with 22 points, got the Goves off to a fast start with two field goals and a free throw for a 3-0 lead.

lead and was in front by 36-17 at halftime. In the first two quarters the Puns grabbed 14 rebounds to four for the Goves and it was Shupe who came off the boards with nine of them.

Farrington went into a full-court press as the second half opened and Punahou immediately retaliated with the same style of play. But the Goves' press left the key open and the Puns drove in for three crucial layups, two by Lota and one by Nolan Ramirez.

THE PUNS led 41-33 going into the final canto, despite 10 turnovers that the Goves couldn't take advantage of.

But the Goves wouldn't give up. With 4:32 remaining they closed the gap to just three points at 43-40 as Marcel, Cliff Laboy and Doug Palama came through from the floor.

Then Laboy fouled out of the game with 4:44 on the clock and Shupe came through on the crucial pair of charity tosses.

WITH 2:30 left, Marcel narrowed the gap to 47-43, but Arnold Morgado drove in for a layup. Marcel made good on a free throw for 49-44 and Punahou went into a stall with 2:00 to play.

Farrington then committed

No. 1 scorer, Elson Cabatu, who was stricken by asthma, but this failed to halt the Viking surge.

Castle broke into an early lead of 4-2 on Richard Gavino's 36-foot jumper and held a 13-42 advantage as the period ended.

A layup by Billy Moore put Hilo ahead 14-13 early in the second quarter and the Vikings never fell behind after that. They were on top 29-23 at halftime.

EVEN THE loss of Robert Yamano on five personals in the third stanza didn't stop the Vikings and they were on top by 42-38 as the final eight minutes began.

Some fine free throw shooting — seven in a row — advanced the margin to 49-38. A key incident came when Elpidio Calip converted a two-point foul and added another marker on a technical.

Stanley Pacheco led the Hilo scoring with 14 points, followed by Moore with 13 and Calip with 11. For Castle, Richard Gavino had 13 and his brother, Phil, 10.

Crusaders Down Hilo, 48-40

St. Louis Wins State Prep Cage Tit

By DAN McGUIRE
WAILUKU, Maui — The St. Louis High School Crusaders turned back a hard-pressing Hilo Vikings, 48-40, last night to capture their second straight Hawaii High School State basketball championship before 3,200 fans here at the War Memorial Center.

Kahuku, the Oahu interscholastic League champion, gained third place by trouncing Punahou, 18-12, and St. Anthony of Maui capped the consolation title with a 50-52 win over Kaula High School.

The Crusaders of Honolulu, favored by upwards of 18 points, found the speed, ball-handling Vikings worthy opponents but the towering height of Jim Nicholson and Howie Dunnham and the tremendous play of little Frank Gonzales made the difference.

GONZALES, 5-5, played sensational Sam Wilson, 5-4, on even terms and kept the Vikings from pulling off a straight-hand trick and was only three points behind, 30-27, going into the final period.

A field goal by Dunnham, two free throws by Ray Lum and two tips by Nicholson pulled the Crusaders to a 38-30 lead in the final quarter and St. Louis held this edge to the end.

Kahuku and Punahou played a nip and tuck game until all-star Bill Pettit of the Pans fouled out with 4:30 remaining in the game. After that the Red Raiders pulled away to win by 14 points.

The OIA champions led 24-23 at the half, overcoming a 20-point Punahou lead in the first quarter. With Mike Tucker hitting from all sides, the Pans closed it to 33-52 in the third quarter.

BUT WHEN Pettit went out on five personal fouls, Punahou lost its big man and the Red Raiders' Junior Ah Yon, Dave Barney and Mike Skinner pulled Kahuku away. Barney wound up with 21 points. Taoli Mazalet netted eight points.

Crusaders Whip Warriors, 69-49

St. Louis Captures Prep Cage Crown

By DAN McGUIRE
The explosive Crusaders of St. Louis, fighting back an early season victory over the Warriors, captured the State High School basketball championship by ousting Kamehameha, 69 to 49, last night before a crowd of 4,300.

at the Honolulu International Center Arena. Coach Walter Weng's tall and talented players had already outdistanced Kam in the finals of the city's interscholastic League race. Overall, it was their fifth victory over the Warriors since December.

Forced to forfeit their first three seasonal victories because of an eligibility violation, the Crusaders won 16 straight games in governing all possible basketball. The huge St. Louis sophomores—6-4 Jim Nicholson and 6-5 Howie Dunnham—were at their best. Nicholson's outburst shots were especially effective in the first half and he finished with a total of 13 points.

Dunnham led all in the second half and was the game's leading scorer with 22 marks. But if there had to be a brilliant and steady lead in the Crusaders' lineup it belonged to Captain Henry Mahi who time after time came up with key interceptions, rebounds and shots. Playing probably his best game in his prep finale, Mahi netted six field goals and seven out of nine free throws.

The Warriors, 44 overall, gave every last ounce of effort but could not overcome the opponents' height advantage and also the excellent work of guards Ray Lum and Art Jeffers. The latter, filling in for the ailing Frankie Gonzales, turned in his top performance.

Overcoming Kam's full-court press, St. Louis took a 19-18 lead at the end of the first quarter, then staged one of their hectic point outbursts in the second period. They outscored the Warriors 20-18 and held away at 36-49 at the intermission.

Kam, especially Raymon Chun, held Nicholson scoreless in the third quarter, but Dunnham and Mahi were hitting with almost incredible consistency. From then it was just a matter of time. The Warriors' last shot was a 3-point shot by Chun, which was blocked by Nicholson.

KAILUA LOSES, 55-49Kam Wins State Cage Cro

By WAYNE HAYASHI
HILO, Hawaii—Kamehameha, held in check for three quarters, finally broke through with a strong fourth period attack to trim upstominded Kailua High School, 55-49, to capture the ninth annual Hawaii High School Athletic Association Class A basketball championship last night at the Civic Auditorium.

Henry Mahi tied the individual scoring record in this year's tournament with 24 points in leading St. Louis to the consolation title with a 76-59 win over Maui High in the day's opening game.

St. Joseph's nailed down third place with a thrilling 62-54 triumph over Hilo High School in the second game.

For coach Jack Herbertson's Warriors, the State crown is their third in four years. Kam's other title-winning years are 1962 and 1963.

Kailua, which knocked off St. Louis and St. Joseph's on successive nights, had their sights on another stunner last night as they battled the taller Warriors on virtually even terms throughout the first three periods.

John Sabas scored Kam's first seven points in the first period to erase a 4-3 Kailua lead. The Warriors held a 9-8 advantage at the buzzer.

The plucky Surfriders, however, tied the score 10-10 at 5:18 of the second period but two straight field goals by Ray Gurczynski gave Kam a 14-10 lead.

The Warriors three times in the period held five-point margins but Kailua closed it at halftime to 22-20.

It was touch and go in the third quarter as the score was tied three times and changed hands six times.

It was Allan Ono who sparked Kailua's 13-point third period with 10 points while Sabas, who wound up the game hitting on 80 per cent of his shots from the field, tallied six to keep Kam in front.

PUNS LOSE IN OVERTIME, 63-55Hilo Wins State Cage Title

By K. OISHI
WAILUKU, Maui — Hilo High School outscored Punahou, 12-4, in overtime play to nail down the State High School basketball championship with a pressure-packed 63-55 victory last night before 3,500 fans at the War Memorial Center.

It was the first championship for coach Al Manliguis' Big Island Interscholastic Federation titlists in the tourney under Hawaii High School Athletic Association sponsorship.

THE TITLE GAME of the eighth annual tournament was preceded by two other contests.

Kamehameha clinched third place with a record-setting 92-58 win over St. Anthony and Kahuku downed Baldwin, 65-51, to clinch the consolation championship.

But it was a fighting band of Vikings from the Big Island who stole the hearts of the fans with their inspiring performances, especially in the semifinal upset over Kamehameha Friday night and in last night's title clincher.

Alan DeSilva played the hero's role for Hilo when he scored four points on a field goal and a pair of free throws at 1:44 of the overtime period to break a 51-51 tie.

THE VIKINGS WENT on to tally eight more points for a total of 12 while Punahou managed singled field goals by Charles Wedemeyer and Leland Pestana.

The two teams waged a nip and tuck first period with the score tied three times, the last being 13-13 at the buzzer.

Raphael Tomas' field goal and a free throw by Leroy Binyan put the Vikings front at the outset of the second period, 16-13 and the never trailed until Punahou knotted the score in the final 44 seconds of play. Hi-

PUNAHOU CRUSHED, 60-40

Warriors Retain Cage Title

Kamehameha School's tall Warriors won their second straight Hawaii State prep basketball championship last night by whipping Punahou, 60-40, with a second half surge before a crowd of 3,500 at University of Hawaii's Otto Klum gym.

It was the biggest margin of victory for the Warriors over the Buffanblus this year.

Hilo High's Vikings wrapped up third place with a 54-48 victory over Wai-pahu's Rural Oahu champions and Radford took the consolation title by edging Maui champion St. Anthony, night.

A STRONG second half surge enabled the 1963 Honolulu prep champions to turn back the runnerup Buffanblus.

Punahou led 23-22 at the half but the taller Warriors outscored their arch rivals 38-17 in the last two quarters to triumph by a whopping 20 points.

John Torres sparked the Warriors with 16 points. Sam Harris made 12, Clay Cockett 11, Walter Ritte 10 and Rockne Freitas seven.

Clinton Albao led Puna-talled nine, Norman Chow nine and Keith Crockett four.

THE BUFFANBLUS jumped off to an early lead in the opening minutes of play and held a 12-9 advantage after first quarter action, with Healy and Albao doing most of the scoring.

Healy and Albao continued to hit in the second quarter and pulled the Puns to a 21-14 lead with 3:15 remaining in the half.

Torres then scored three field goals for the Warriors, against a lone basket by Keith Crockett, to close the gap to within three points,

Harris followed with a 20-foot jump shot to cut the margin to 23-22 and the half ended without further scoring after Healy missed two free throws for Punahou on Torres' fourth personal foul.

A rejuvenated Warrior five returned to the court after the intermission and quickly tied up the score, at 25-22 and 26-21. Then Ritte hit two jump shots and Freitas scored on a hook to pull the Warriors to a 31-25 lead. Kamehameha never was in trouble after that.

THE WARRIORS increased their lead to nine minutes after the lead to nine eight, 42-34, as the third quarter ended. Kam outscored Punahou 20-11 in this period.

Kamehameha continued to wax hot and the Buffanblus began to feel the tension as they put on a full-court press against their taller opponents.

Capitalizing on free throws and on the backboard control by Freitas and Harris, the Warriors opened up a 14-point lead, 54-40, with 3:16 remaining in the game. They increased it to 18, at 58-40, then made it 60-40 on substitute Dick Leong's field

Punahou managed only six points against 18 for the Warriors in the last quarter.

IN THE BATTLE for third place, the Vikings of Hilo overtook the Waipahu Marauders midway in the last quarter and opened up a six-point bulge with 15 points to 13 for the Rural Oahu champions.

Raphael Tomas sparked the Vikings, who appeared to be the sentimental favorites of the fans. He scored 23 points on 11 field goals and one free throw. Calvin Maniguis added 13.

Kam Stuns Puns, 59-58, for State Title

By BILL KWON

HILO, March 11—A dramatic after-the-game free throw by Sam Harris gave Kamehameha a thrilling 59-58 victory over Punahou and won the State prep cage championship last night before a standing room only crowd of 4,500 fans at the Civic Auditorium.

Harris, a 6-3 junior forward, dropped in the first of two free throws after the game was over to end Punahou's jinx over the Warriors in the game that counted the most. Harris was then carried off by jubilant teammates.

An elated Jack Herbertson, Kam coach, said "after all this frustration we finally did it." Harris said afterwards that he kept saying to himself "I'm gonna make it."

The 11th hour loss snatched the long sought State championship from Punahou which was seeking a grand slam season after beating Kam three times this year, twice by one point.

Punahou, the Interscholastic League of Honolulu champions, has never won the title but was favored to do so last night.

Hilo took third place by beating Radford, 49-42. Wai-pahu beat Honolulu, 59-54, for the consolation crown.

Harris was fouled by Barry Klein at the buzzer while grabbing a rebound with the score tied at 58-58. Seconds earlier Clint Albao was called for a fatal technical foul when he bounced the ball away from the referee after being called for carrying the ball.

Clay Cockett, a 6-4 junior, calmly put in the free shot to tie the score at 58-58 with 42 seconds left in the game.

Kam threw the ball in and played for the last-second shot, but John Torres, a Warrior standout all night, missed a jump shot from the side. Harris grabbed the rebound and was fouled by Klein at the buzzer to set up the dramatic finish.

Punahou was sailing along early in the fourth quarter, holding a 56-45 lead with 5:35 seconds left in the game.

Kam scored 12 straight points to take the lead with 1:06 to go, 57-56, when Deonny Boiser put in a free throw.

Phil Marsh dropped in two foul shots for the Puns to make it 58-57 five seconds later. But, Albao's technical gave Kam its reprieve that wrecked Punahou's dreams.

Both teams struggled into the finals but put on their best performance to thrill the overflow crowd—the largest in the three-night tourney sponsored by the Hawaii High School Athletic Association.

With Torres, who won up with 23 points for 1 night, scoring eight of 1 first quarter but Albao 5 in a 20-footer from the right side to give Punahou its first lead in the game at 13-11 with 2:57 left in the opening period.

The Puns scored nine in row to take a 18-12 lead 2

Kam closed it to 20-16.

St. Louis Takes It, 54

Rally Overcomes 12-Point Deficit

By BILL KWON

St. Louis climaxed a grand slam basketball season by turning back Punahou, 54-44, in the finals of the State Tournament last night at the University's Klum gym.

The title was the fourth and biggest prize for the Crusaders this year.

And ironically, the Pans were the victims each time. They lost out to Coach Walter Wong's club in the finals of the pre-season Punahou and Kamehameha Invitational Tournaments, in the Interscholastic League of Honolulu race and now the State finals.

The crowd of 3,500 saw the Crusaders avenge their only defeat of the season in 28 games, the loss coming in the final game of the round robin last week.

Last night's victory was the fourth in five meetings between the two spirited rivals this season.

Govs Defeat Saints, Retain Prep Cage Title

By BILL KWON

HONO, Hawaii, March 5.—Walt Gouveia closed a brilliant career at Farrington by leading the Governors to a 44-32 victory over St. Louis in the State basketball championship game tonight.

Gouveia, team captain and lone senior on the starting five, scored 22 points, including eight in a row in the third quarter, to give the Govs their second straight Hawaii High School Athletic Association state title.

Laupahoehoe turned in a sizzling fourth in the final quarter to beat Baldwin, 43-41, for third place, while Waihee of Kauai whipped Moanalua, 42-31, for the consolation title, in other games at the Civic Auditorium.

St. Louis led 11-10 at the half but then Gouveia scored eight straight points to put Farrington ahead to stay.

The Gov's tight defense limited St. Louis to only 11 points in the second half. Both teams started off slowly, the Govs better a 11-4 the second quarter, gaining two the better going ahead 19-10 on a 15-foot jump shot by Leland Kawahara.

Thus it was all Gouveia and Farrington's rugged defense in the second half.

Gouveia and reserve Clarence Olan are the only seniors on the Governor team, which ended its season with a 56-1 overall record.

Gouveia was high scorer for the tournament with 80 points in three games.

Coach Bob Stahler said "I'm sure Miss Gouveia next season. He's one of the best tournament players I've ever seen."

"I also want to thank the Farrington student body and alumni for their fine support during the season," he said.

Inspired Laupahoehoe, three starters out with injuries, rallied for 13 straight points in the last six minutes of the game to edge Baldwin.

Lap saw Del Malani, who scored all but four of the Lap points in the last half, led the Big Island offense

Farrington Tops Kam For Territorial Title

Farrington High School last night won the 1959 Territorial basketball championship of the Hawaii High School Athletic Association.

The Governors whipped the Kamehameha Warriors, 48-37, at University of Hawaii's Otto Klum gymnasium before an overflow crowd of 5,000 fans.

Farrington and Kamehameha were co-champions in the Honolulu Interscholastic League campaign.

NORMAN DEPONTE with 19 points led the Governors. Walter Gouveia followed with 12.

Big Wayne Foster was Kam's best shot with 17 markers.

The game was tied up four times in the first quarter but Deponte put Farrington in front, 15-13, early in the second period and the Governors steadily pulled away. They led 25-21 at the half.

In the battle for third place, the Hilo Vikings beat St. Anthony's Trojans of Maui, 58-39.

The Trojans led, 14-13, in the first quarter but Gilbert Tomas put Hilo ahead, 15-14, early in the second period and the Vikings never relinquished the lead for the remainder of the fray.

Hilo held a 32-24 halftime advantage.

Larry Manliguis scored 19 points, Gilbert Tomas 16 and Arnold Hoolulu nine to pace the Vikings.

High for the Trojans were Joseph Ah Sau with 11 markers and Wendell Osorno with eight.

St. Joseph's Wins First Cage Crown

By BOB COLE

Honolulu's high school basketball standard bearers, Punahou and St. Louis, were home from the Territorial wars today, ready to hang up their duds and hope for a better 1959.

Sadder, but little wiser, the Crusaders and the Buffs could only help but wonder:

1—How the Saints would have fared had the sponsoring Hawaii High School Athletic Association flown in two approved West Coast collegiate officials, and

2—How the Buffs would have finished had regulars Bob Muller and Lindsey Kinney been physically able to play.

Walter Wong's St. Louis quint lost its Territorial championship to St. Joseph's of Hilo, 53-50, in a heart-breaking (for the Saints) overtime fracas in the show-down tilt Saturday night.

More than 4,500 fans packed the Civic Auditorium for that game, Hilo High's 57-38 romp over Punahou for third place, and Lahainaluna's 48-41 win over Kahuku for the consolation crown.

TWO-MAN SHOW

It was a two-man show for St. Joe's as it outgunned smaller St. Louis at the foul line, winning its first Territorial title.

Big Ed Bento, a graceful 6-3, and speedy Eugene Capellas had 24 and 22 points respectively and between them scored St. Joe's final 14 points.

St. Louis started with a rush, leading 8-0 before Capellas counted, then had to scramble for a 29-28 half-time lead.

Capellas, more than Bento, hurt the Saints, for while James Aiwohi contained the fine Card postman under the basket, Capellas hit consistently from outside.

For a brief moment in the third period when St. Joe's took a 38-36 lead (Capellas hit four quick points) the Saints seemed to falter. Aiwohi committed his fifth foul with 2:47 left to darken the picture.

But Ray Scanlan, little-used all year, so successfully blanketed the taller Bento that the Card ace went scoreless for three minutes — a rare oddity.

Scanlan, who might have proved the difference, was summarily ejected from the game early in the final quarter when an official charged he deliberately tripped a Cardinal.

Immediately, with the challenge for a 53-49 lead, reduced only by Francis Kauhane's free throw at :28.

Hilo, handicapped badly by the lack of a single six-footer, showed one of the sharpest shooting quints in the event.

The Vikings waged a real thriller with Punahou for three periods before Roy Tanimura, Danny Ayala and Gil Tomas combined to earn a 36-32 third period lead.

HILLO RAN WILD

That cooked the Puns. Hilo ran wild in the fourth quarter.

The Viks hit 12 in a row before the Buffs scored, to make it 50-38. Larry Manliguis sparked as the Viks turned it into a rout.

Dave Javier and Reynold Corpus, with 15 and 13 points, topped Lahainaluna as it thumped Kahuku for the consolation title.

Alfredo Prado and Ron Akiyama forged a brief second quarter rally that gave the Red Raiders a 24-24 tie at the half, but a 10-4 Luna margin in the third did it.

Hilo Fans Sharply Divided

Hilo high school rooters are more sharply divided between Hilo High and St. Joseph's than Honolulu fans are over their favorites...

When St. Louis's Ray Scanlan, doing an excellent job guarding big Ed Bento, was ejected from the championship game, Hilo High fans showered the court with missiles and booed so loud and long the game was held up more than three minutes...

Vociferous cheering by Hilo High students gave Punahou its loudest rooting section of the season, including its home games... Molokai's Henry Naki, little-known by fans at the tourney, was one of the best there...

They can't compliment Ralph Kiyosaki enough on the superb manner in which the tournament was unraveled... The press facilities, not always the greatest, were the best at the Civic...

Oahu was shut out in the final tripleheader, Kahuku, Punahou and St. Louis Inc.

To be the best, Seabury Hall had to beat the best. Bromo Dorn made sure of it, with 20 points, seven rebounds, three steals and two assists as the Spartans outlasted Hawaii Prep 49-33 in the Division II final of the HHSAA Boys Basketball State Championships Friday night at SimpliFi Arena at the Stan Sheriff Center.

The 6-foot-5 senior took control at the point, setting teammates up for key baskets after a resilient, young Ka Makani squad had rallied from a 15-point deficit to within 37-30 in the fourth quarter.

"This is a testament to the mental toughness and the perseverance of these guys that came back," Seabury Hall coach Scott Prather said.

The Seabury Hall Spartans celebrated their trophy after beating Hawaii Prep for the HHSAA State Boys Basketball Division II championship Friday at the SimpliFi Arena at Stan Sheriff Center. At made a rainbow fadeaway jumper in the lane, Seabury Hall had a 9-0 lead with 3:58 left in the opening quarter.

HPA missed its eight shots against the Spartans' 2-3 matchup zone.

Seabury Hall closed the quarter with a corner 3 by Sjostrand on a dish by Dorn for a 14-3 cushion.

With a 25-13 halftime lead, the Spartans already had 10 points apiece from Dorn (4-for-10 from the field) and Peterson (5-for-5).

HPA was 5-for-23 from the field by intermission, including 0-for-8 from the 3-point arc. (It finished 2-for-13 from 3.) They pounded the paint to begin the second half, cutting it to 27-17 on buckets by Eberhard and Root. HPA's defense tightened up, limiting Seabury Hall to 1-for-6 shooting in the first five minutes of the third quarter.

Dorn then took command, hitting two treys from the wing. Then he stole the ball from freshman Max Aiona IV, went coast to coast and followed his missed layup for another bucket. That opened Seabury Hall's lead Layden Kauka scored 21 of his 24 points after half-time, as Kohala rallied from a 10-point deficit for a 49-45 win Saturday over Seabury Hall in the title game of the Heide & Cook/HHSAA Division II State Championships at Blaisdell Arena.

Kauka made the go-ahead free throw with 1:53 left in overtime, as BillF champion Kohala (22-2) repeated as state champions. The Cowboys have won three of the past four D-II crowns.

"That's a real good team. We had to stay composed. We tried to throw different things at them. I trusted my guys with man to man (defense)," Cowboys coach Kihei Kapeliela said.

Kauka, a 6-foot-1 sophomore guard, faced a tenacious Spartans defense but shot 3-4 or 7 from deep — way deep — as the Cowboys won despite trailing by 10 in the third quarter. Jayden

The Kohala bench celebrated after beating University for the championship on Friday.

How 'bout them Cowboys?

Freshman Layden Kauka hit a 16-foot jumper with 5.4 seconds left as Kohala rallied past University 40-38 in the Division II final of the Heide & Cook/HHSAA Boys Basketball State Championships on Friday night at Simpfendorfer Arena.

"It feels amazing, winning a state championship in my first year," Kauka said. "It's crazy. We talked about it, 92 days ago was our first day of right here. Our leaders are underclassmen," Kapelula said. "We knew that they could do it. It was a matter of whether they believe they could do it. Tough game. They never gave up and kept battling all the way to the end. University is tough, kind of like HPA. They've got a lot of freshmen and sophomores."

Down 37-33, Kohala dug deep. Kauka, a 6-foot freshman, came up clutch with a step-back 3-point shot to bring the Cowboys within rim at the buzzer.

Kauka finished with 13 points on 5-for-18 shooting from the field against a tall, physical ULS man-to-man defense, adding seven rebounds and two steals. His brother, junior guard Landon Kauka, finished with a game-high 19 points (7-for-12 from

Triplett carries Maui Prep to Division II championship

By Paul Honda
phonda@staradvertiser.com

The scoring machine transformed into the ultimate playmaker, and Maui Prep is now the first team in Maui Interscholastic League history to win a boys basketball state championship in the classification era.

Drew Triplett, a 6-foot-1 senior, had 10 points, eight rebounds and 16 assists as MPA completed its dominant run with a 65-35 win over OIA champion Kaimuki at the Heide & Cook/HHSAA Boys Basketball Division II State Championships at Blaisdell Center.

"We've been in the gym every day since last year," Triplett said. "We had something every day — whether it was practice or not, all the boys asked the coaches if we could get in the gym. All the boys, before practice, after practice, before school, we would get in there. Our coaches always tell me to score, but also to make the right play."

3-point attempt, but his ability to surgically pick apart Kaimuki's defense was unlike any other.

Kaimuki came into the state final with an eight-game win streak, averaging 73 points per game in the big dance.

Instead, Jimmy Falk scored 17 points, connecting on three of four from the arc, while Dylan Falk added 12 points (two treys) and post Levi Basurto tallied 12 points, five boards and two steals. Emerson Flores provided two steals and tight defense for Na Pueo, who finished the season a perfect 17-0.

"As a coach, I demand that they play the right way, that they share the ball," MPA coach Zach Bailey said. "You see a lot of teams out here, they want to put the ball on the ground first, dribble, dribble, dribble. It's tough on our guys, but it's come to fruition."

MPA shot 8-for-18 from the 3-point line, a testament to all the hours spent working on the three-point shot.

JAMM AQUINO/JAQUINO@STARADVERTISER.COM

Maui Prep guard Drew Triplett drove to the basket around Kaimuki guard Malu Cleveland on Saturday.

Kaimuki coach Greydon Espinda said. "They made some deep shots. Triplett was part of all of that, how unselfish he is."

Maui Prep began its boys basketball program in 2019. MPA built a gym in 2021. Bailey is a physical education and health teacher at the conference game against Saint Louis I-AA, and 31 against D-I Kaiser. He averaged more than 32 points per game in Na Pueo's first seven games, but has not reached the 30-point threshold since. Instead, Triplett's skill at attacking the rim and distributing the ball was sparked the run, but MPA responded with a long-range 3 and a traditional three-point play in the paint by Triplett to turn the tide.

Kaimuki took a 15-14 lead into the second quarter after Rashawn Fritz-Betiru hit a 10-foot bank shot.

MPA then went on a resounding 17-5 run in the second quarter as Jimmy Falk rained in a pair of 3s.

Kaimuki shot 2-for-8 from the field as MPA got two wing 3s from Jimmy Falk and another from Dylan Falk. After Basurto took a steal full-court and hit two free throws with less than a second left in the first half, Na Pueo took a 31-19 lead into the locker room.

Tough man-to-man defense limited the Bulldogs to 2-for-11 field-goal shooting in the third quarter. MPA opened the lead to 46-24 with textbook backdoor cuts and Triplett's array of bounce passes and left-handed skip passes to open teammates on the arc.

Fritz-Betiru led Kaimuki (23) with 15 points, seven

Snapple/HHSAA Boys Basketball State Championships - Division II Championship

Kohala makes history with first state championship

By Paul Honda
phonda@staradvertiser.com

O'Shen Cazimero poured in 23 points as Kohala outlasted Roosevelt in a thriller, 51-48, to make history, capturing its first Division II boys basketball state championship at Stan Sheriff Center.

Kohala reached the final in the inaugural D-II tourney of 2007, but had not returned until Friday night.

Coach Kihei Kapeliela was an assistant to Don Fernandez for 12 years before becoming head coach this season. The game was extremely physical in the early and late stages, but Kapeliela and his counterpart, Roosevelt's Steve Hathaway, managed to live with the contact. Kapeliela let his run-and-gun squad do just that.

"Today, my team just wanted me to score. Every time I drove, I dished out. I relied on my teammates. Some of them knocked it down. Some of them, it didn't, but it's OK. I took it to the hole, not free throws history. It's the first time we've made it this far. We still have two more years left and we still have chances to get it again."

Kohala's 5-foot-11 post defender, Molonai Emeliano, had 12 points, seven rebounds and two blocks. He faced Kaulana Koki and Kayman Lewis often in the paint terscholastic Federation and was hoping for a rematch with league champion Hawaii Prep, but Ka Makani fell to Roosevelt in the semifinals.

Roosevelt, the OIA champion, was true to form. The young lineup had ups and downs, but finished with a fury. Kohala led 42-42 after a missed two free throws that rattled in and out with 26.5 ticks left. His 3 with 3.2 seconds left missed, and Emeliano sank two foul shots with 1.3 seconds left.

Roosevelt's Hail Mary shot from 75 feet away missed at the horn.

Watanabe, a southpaw sophomore like Cazimero

Roosevelt had never advanced past the quarterfinals of the state tournament since 2000, when it placed third.

Though Hathaway warned his team about trying to run and gun with the Cowboys, they did anyway for most of the first quarter. Kohala zoomed to a 15-6 lead behind 3-pointers by Elijah Antonio and Cazimero. Moses Emeliano's layup on a fast-break feed from Francisco gave the Blif runners-up a nine-point cushion with 1:45 left in the first quarter.

Roosevelt regrouped and cut the lead to three entering the second quarter.

Seguancia's and-l three-point play tied it at 23 and the lead changed hands until Cazimero scored on a tough drive and double-pump layup before the halftime buzzer.

Kohala led at the break, 28-27.

The Cowboys went on an 8-2 run to begin the second half as Roosevelt went cold — 1-for-7 — from the field.

Cazimero scored four points during the run and

2019 Snapple/HHSAA Boys Basketball State Championships - DII - Championship Game

DIVISION II BOYS BASKETBALL

Damien closes out first state championship

By Paul Honda
phonda@stansheriff.com

The battle of Houghtaling Street turned out to be a mere skirmish.

Jake Holtz scored seven of his 13 points in the first quarter and Jydon Hall poured in 19 as top-seeded Damien routed second-seeded Farrington 73-50 to capture the Snapple/HHSAA Boys Basketball Division II State Championship Saturday night at the Stan Sheriff Center.

This is the first state basketball title in Damien's history.

Balance was essential for the Monarchs, who got 13 points each from Jake Holtz, Bryce Forbes and Hayden Bayudan. Seventeen steals, including four by Holtz and three by Bayudan, stifled the running Governors.

"This was our goal since last year, we lost in the state final (to St. Francis). We sat in the locker room for 20 minutes after that game," Monarchs coach Alvin

JAMM AGUIÑO / JAGUIÑO@STADVERTISER.COM

"It took a little bit of heart. We had the talent, but we worked hard and have the Damien grit. To play hard and be scrappy. The young boys weren't used to that, so us seniors, me Lindon and Tanner (Souza) showed them," Penebacker said.

The first two minutes were full-tit action up and down the floor, but Damien's 2-1 press slowed down the pace. Forbes' corner 3 on a feed from Lindon Sevilleja Jr. opened the Monarchs' lead to 13-8 before the midway point of the first quarter. Then came the torrent from the team in white and purple. Damien's press created a string of Farrington turnovers with a drive by Hall for a layup, a steal by Holtz and a lob from Hall to Forbes for his first dunk, two foul shots by Hall, a follow shot by Holtz, a steal and layup by Sevilleja, and suddenly it was 23-8 late in the opening quarter.

Damien entered the second quarter with a 26-13

St. Francis drubs Damien for second straight D-II title

By Paul Honda
phonda@starsadvertiser.com

The second time around certainly wasn't easier for the St. Francis Saints.

They were simply prepared for any adversity. Kameron Ng made sure of it, pouring in 11 of his 29 points in a pivotal second quarter as St. Francis overwhelmed Damien 76-52 to repeat as Division II boys basketball state champion on Friday night at the Stan Sheriff Center.

ILH champion St. Francis finished the season 29-3 overall (including nonconference games), and won five of its eight games against Top 10 teams, all D-I level.

Ng also was named the best defensive effort we put in all season."

For the second year in a row, the Saints started slowly in the title game. Damien was in a groove, getting quick passes and drives to open a 9-2 lead.

After a TV timeout, St. Francis began its comeback. Nishida hit a 3 from the left corner and Kordel Ng got active offensively going to the rim. After Titus Liu came off the bench to swish a corner 3, the Saints led 16-13 late in the first quarter.

Damien battled back with a corner 3 by Galdiano and back-to-back baskets by Sevilleja, getting to within 21-20. From there, St. Francis went on a 15-2 run as the Ng brothers combined for 13 of the 15 points. Bubba Aka-moments of the fourth quarter.

Again, like clockwork, the Saints responded. Vukovic scored the next five points to launch a 12-5 run. Kordel Ng drove for a euro-step bucket, Nishida rained in a corner 3 and Kameron Ng drove, pump-faked three defenders into the air, and scored easily for a 61-46 lead

University defeats Seabury Hall for first D-II title

By Paul Hovels
phovels@hawaii.com

Thirty-eight years more than a lifetime ago, in 1978,

That's how long the state title drought lasted, and it ended on Sunday night. Junior Cameron Hanisch scored 33 points and Micah Agcaoili added nine as undefeated University High defeated Seabury Hall 46-31 to capture the Division II title at has been impressed off the court. Former all-state guard Randy Canencia, along with Agcaoili, played through the tournament's toughest games.

And just like that, University won its first state title since 1978, when Charlie Hanisch was head coach. "It's very special. We played a lot of good games, even beating Oahu," Agcaoili said.

The team had come bumping along the way, making one second tour in Seabury during the regular season.

"We knew it would be a great after losing that second game," said Hobus, who also had a block. "We put in the work and every game after that we'd be on the State. We have experience and we're a little bit more. We share the ball and it affects the whole team. It's been a long time. More than 30 years!"

KAISER TAKES THE PRIZE

Kaiser Mahiko, seen in 24 points propelling the Cougars to victory in their final D-II game

By Paul Hoad
paul.hoad@hawaii.edu

This team may see some wins here.

Kaiser, which will depart for Division I next season, got 10 points from Keoua Mahiko's 16-17 over Kalani to capture the Division II state championship on Sunday night at Stan Sheriff Center.

In the first state championship game, Kaiser defeated Kalani 44-33.

Chance Kalaugher provided the power on defense, grabbing 10 boards. The Cougars' defense drove constant double teams from Kalani's perimeter defense. That resulted when the Cougars were high-percentage. After Mahiko's last corner 3 and Thompson's last free throw, the Cougars were within 20-11 with 1:30 left in the first half.

With Kalaugher on the bench — he committed back-to-back offensive fouls and left with 24.5 to go on the half — Robinson hit two foul shots to end the half, putting Kaiser within 18-23.

Kalani shot 1-for-1 from the foul line in the second quarter to stay close.

Kalaheo shows pep in winning D-II title

So much for fatigue.

Forty-six games into possibly the busiest season known to a Hawaii high school basketball team, Alika Smith and his Kalaheo Mustangs were amazingly fresh Saturday night in a 57-42 win over McKinley for the Division II crown of the Hawaiian Airlines/HSSAA Boys Basketball State Championships.

Junior guard Josh Ko led Kalaheo with 16 points and the Mustangs got superlative defense from Derrick Morgan and Shem Sukumaran. Morgan and Sukumaran limited McKinley's super scorer

Even as their lead stretched to double digits, Kailua wanted to remain uncomfortable.

It was only one night earlier that the Surfriders blew a 13-point lead in the semifinals and had to win in overtime. Only toward the end of last night's state championship game did the Surfriders feel a sense of comfort, especially with a state championship trophy in hand

Govs pull out a miracle

By Paul Honda
phonda@starbulletin.com

They could almost walk on water, these miracle Govs.

A desperation 3-pointer by Christian Hernandez forced overtime, and a clutch layup by Jordan Ibana with 10 seconds left gave Farrington a stunning 70-68 win over top-seeded Aiea in the final of the Hawaiian Airlines/HHSAA Boys Basketball Division II State Championships at Blaisdell Arena.

It was a miraculous finish for the Governors (23-6 overall), who had a struggling program when Allan Silva took the helm four years ago.

"I'm walking on air right now. I'm really happy for my guys," said Silva, who remembered a promise he made to himself. "I said in three years, we'll be competitive, and by the fourth or fifth year, we'll win a state championship."

McKinley defense smothers Kohala

It's one of the most-used clichés in sports: Defense wins championships.

But it is definitely the appropriate phrase to use in describing McKinley's total domination of Kohala in a 55-28 victory last night in the championship game of the inaugural Hawaiian Airlines/HHSAA Division II Boys Basketball State Championships at the Stan Sheriff Center.
