The Queen’s Medical Center/HHSAA Boys Soccer State Championships kicks off Wednesday, Feb. 24, with the 12-team Division I bracket. Eight qualifiers face-off in the first round, while the top four seeded teams are awarded a bye.

Last year’s runner up, Kalani, is making their fifth-straight appearance and first-ever as the #1 seed in the tournament, returning six players from its 2013 state championship team.

Second seeded Punahou last won a state title in 2011, but in the years since has had Kalani knock them out of title contention on two occasions in 2012 and 2013. Both contests were determined by a close 3-2 margin in the quarterfinal and championship rounds, respectively. The Buffanblu aim to avoid the déjà vu to net an 11th trophy to their case.

The Division II field hits the pitch a day later on Thursday, Feb. 25 in an eight-team playoff headlined by #1 Hawaii Prep and #2 Waimea. This marks the Ka Makani’s sixth D2 appearance, which include third place finishes the last two years and a runner-up accolade in 2009. The Menehunes are making their first-ever D2 appearance, and fourth appearance in tournament history. The last time Waimea qualified for the state tournament was 1999.

Mid-Pacific won the last two D2 titles, but is competing in the D1 classification this season.
