It's a new season, but the 2017 girls' soccer state tournament is looking a lot like last year's with 80% of the field returning, including the order of finish for most leagues.

The one thing that makes this year's Division I tournament different is a new format to mix things up. The runner-up from each league has the benefit of hosting a first-round match on their respective home fields on Monday, Jan. 30:

- Moanalua @ 'Iolani, 3:30 pm kickoff
- Castle @ Waiakea, 3:30 pm kickoff
- Kapolei @ Pearl City, 6:00 pm kickoff
- Aiea @ Kamehameha-Maui, 7:15 pm kickoff

The winner of these matches move on to the remaining three-day tournament at Waipio Peninsula Soccer Complex on 'Oahu, continuing Thursday, Feb. 2 through Saturday, Feb. 4. The losers will end their season.

The Division II will remain the traditional four-day tournament format with all matches being played at Waipio Peninsula Soccer Complex on 'Oahu. Three-time defending state champion Hawaii Prep, will face off against familiar foes as well. The ILH, BIIF, MIL and KIF are sending the exact same representatives as last year. The OIA champion and third place Waipahu and Radford, respectively, and the ILH runner-up Sacred Hearts are the "newcomers."
