The 2017 Stanford Carr Development/HHSAA Girls Water Polo State Championship tips off Monday, May 1, with the first-round regional taking place at Kamehameha-Kapalama, Kihei Aquatic Center, and Kona Community Aquatic Center. Winners of this first-round match move on to the final three days of the tournament, May 4-6, at Duke Kahanamoku Aquatic Complex on the lower campus of the University of Hawaii, Manoa. The losers will end their season.

Nine-time defending state champion Punahou received the top seed and a first-round bye in the tournament. The Buffanblu are making its 12th appearance in 14 years of the tournament, boasting an unblemished record of 33-0 in state play and 11 state titles under the guidance of head coach Ken Smith.

OIA champion Kahuku and runner-up Roosevelt are making its 14th appearances, qualifying for every state tournament since its inception in 2004. The Red Raiders, seeded second in the tournament, are 26-14 in state tournament matches (0.650), with four runner-up titles.

Wailua is making its second-ever appearance in as many years.
